(Country) (date)

And use in _____ for all above-listed wares and services (Country)

proposed use in Canada

NOTES:

If use in Canada has occurred, a date of first use should be stated in the application.

If both wares and services are listed, a separate date of first use in Canada for each should be stated.

If wares or services fall into several different commercial categories, or International Classes, a separate date of first use in Canada for each category or class should be listed.

If mark has not been used in Canada but has been made known in Canada, this may constitute another ground for applying for registration in Canada. Since the applicable legal requirements to support a "making known" claim are difficult to satisfy under Canadian law, we suggest that you communicate with us further.

If use of mark in Canada has been by a predecessor in title, affiliated company or licensee, please communicate with us further.
